

Standard Conditions for Recruitment Services

Standard Conditions for Permanent Candidates

1. All and any business undertaken by Michael Page International, Inc. ("MP") part of the PageGroup, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, having its North American Headquarters at 405 Lexington Avenue, The Chrysler Building, 28th Floor, New York, NY 10174 to place a candidate (the "Candidate") seeking to be placed for employment at an MP client (the "Client") is transacted subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set out.
2. The candidate must provide a full and accurate resume to MP. MP will then, at its sole discretion, search for suitable employment positions on behalf of the Candidate. The candidate shall describe the type of employment and positions the candidate is seeking in a detailed manner on the candidate Registration Form.
3. In addition, before MP searches, at its sole and absolute discretion, for a position for the Candidate, the Candidate shall provide MP with satisfactory evidence of the Candidate's experience, training qualifications and/or authorizations required to perform the type of work the Candidate is seeking.
4. The Candidate consents to the disclosure of all information that is reasonably required in order to find suitable employment for the candidate, including but not limited to, copies of qualifications, authorizations and/or references by MP to the Client.
5. The Candidate shall immediately inform MP should there be any reason or circumstance under which it would be detrimental to the interests of MP, the Client or the Candidate for the Candidate to take up a particular position with a Client.
6. MP is under no obligation to find employment for the Candidate.
7. The Candidate should not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to the interests of MP, would negatively affect MP's relationship with the Client or is likely to bring MP into disrepute.
8. The Candidate having any complaint in connection with the work finding services shall present a complaint in writing to both his or her direct supervisor or contact person at MP and/or MP human resources.
9. If, following an introduction from MP, the Candidate receives an offer of employment or engagement to work for or with a Client introduced by MP, the Candidate shall inform MP immediately and provide MP with full details of the offer including a copy of the offer letter/contract of employment.
10. An offer of employment is not made until written details are received from the Client and Client approves the hire of the Candidate. MP is not responsible for and shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Candidate by reason of the Candidate's decision to resign from his/her current employment or engagement before or after receipt of the Client's offer.

Standard Terms and Conditions of engagement for Temporary Workers

1. Any and all business undertaken by Michael Page International, Inc. ("MP") part of the PageGroup, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, having its North American Headquarters at 405 Lexington Avenue, The Chrysler Building, 28th Floor, New York, NY 10174 to place a temporary worker ("Temporary Worker") seeking to be placed in a position by MP is transacted subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set out, each of which shall be incorporated in any agreement between MP and the Temporary Worker, unless expressly stated otherwise in any other such agreement.
2. MP and the Temporary Worker acknowledge that the Temporary Worker is interested in receiving temporary assignments to provide services to MP clients ("Client") at Client sites. Final terms and conditions will be issued to the Temporary Worker in writing at the commencement of an assignment, detailing the actual rate of pay and the type of work to be undertaken (the "Candidate Confirmation Letter"). The types of work and expected rates of pay to be sought on behalf of the Temporary Worker are outlined in the Candidate Confirmation Letter.
3. The Temporary Worker understands and acknowledges that he or she is an employee at will and nothing herein constitutes a contract of employment for any specific term or otherwise guarantees the candidate employment. This means that MP or the Temporary Worker can terminate an assignment or the employment relationship at any time and for any reason, with or without notice. Accordingly, MP may terminate an assignment and/or this agreement without notice at any time and for any reason at MP's sole discretion, and instruct the Temporary Worker to end an assignment with a Client at any time.
4. The Temporary worker agrees to accept and comply with the rules and working conditions established by MP as well as any rules of the Client applicable to the project or assignment into which the Temporary Worker is being placed.
5. Where an assignment is suitable for several temporary workers registered with MP, MP has the sole and absolute discretion to determine which Temporary Worker will be offered such assignment. The Temporary Worker agrees that MP cannot and does not guarantee the Temporary Worker a specific number of assignments nor a fixed duration of any particular assignment. The Temporary Worker further understands that the Temporary Worker is not eligible for or entitled to participate in any benefit plan offered by MP's Clients to any of their direct employees regardless of the length of the Temporary Worker's assignment and regardless of whether the Temporary Worker is found to be a common law employee of any of MP's Clients for any purpose. Therefore with full knowledge and understanding the Temporary Worker hereby expressly waives any claim or right that the Temporary Worker may have to such benefits and agrees not to make any claim for the same.

6. It is a condition of this Agreement that the Temporary Worker, before the commencement of any assignment, shall satisfactorily complete an I9 check and provide MP with such documentation as required.
7. If, in respect of any assignment, the Temporary Worker is required by law, any professional body or by the Client to hold any qualifications and/or authorizations, the Temporary Worker shall provide MP with:
  - a) up to date copies of such qualifications or authorizations; and
  - b) the names of two references (who are not relatives of the Temporary Worker) who the Temporary Worker agrees that MP may approach for the purpose of obtaining references about the Temporary Worker. The Temporary Worker also consents to the disclosure of such qualifications, authorizations and/or references by MP to the Client.
8. MP shall pay to the Temporary Worker wages calculated at an hourly rate, to be determined prior to the commencement of the assignment and as set forth in the Candidate Confirmation Letter, subject to applicable deductions. The Temporary Worker will be paid on a weekly basis. If there is a different pay period for a particular assignment, MP will notify the Temporary Worker prior to such assignment. The Temporary Worker shall provide time sheets signed by the Client setting forth the hours worked by the Temporary Worker on a weekly basis. In addition, the Temporary Worker shall promptly comply with any other rule or request (either from the Client or MP) to provide information and/or documentation in respect of the hours worked by the Temporary Worker. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, Failure by the Temporary Worker to provide any evidence of hours worked may delay payment for such hours. MP will discipline an employee found to have falsified time sheets or participated in such falsification, up to and include termination of the Employment.
9. The Temporary Worker shall at all times when services are due to a Client comply with the following conditions:
  - a) Not engage in any conduct detrimental to the interests of the Client or MP;
  - b) Be present during the times or for the total number of hours during each day and/or week as may be agreed with the Client and to notify MP and the Client if the Temporary Worker is unable to attend the assignment for whatever reason;
  - c) To take all reasonable steps to safeguard his/her own safety and the safety of any other person who may be affected by his/her actions at work;
  - d) To comply with any rules or obligations relating to discipline and/or health and safety in force from time to time at the premises where services are performed to the extent that they are reasonably applicable; and
  - e) To comply with all reasonable instructions and requests (either by the client or MP) regarding the scope of the agreed services that the Temporary Worker is to provide to the Client;
10. The Temporary Worker shall not, directly or indirectly, seek or accept employment by or engagement as an independent contractor or perform any services while on the payroll of any other staffing firm, for any Client to which the Temporary Worker is assigned by MP, for a period of twelve months following the last date of his/her most recent assignment to such Client without the prior written consent of MP. Further, for the twelve (12) month period following the end of an assignment for a client, the Temporary Worker shall not refer other employees or candidates for employment to the Client directly. Any such referrals shall be made through MP. The Temporary Worker agrees that he or she will advise any prospective employer of the covenants and restrictions in these terms and conditions.
11. The Temporary Worker shall immediately inform MP and the Client should there be any reason or circumstance under which it would be detrimental to the interests of MP, the Client or the Temporary Worker for the assignment to continue. The Temporary Worker must not engage in any conduct, which is detrimental to the interests of MP, would negatively affect MP's relationship with the Client or is likely to bring MP into disrepute.
12. The Temporary Worker agrees to indemnify and hold MP harmless of and from any losses, judgments, liabilities or costs (including reasonable attorney's fees) that MP incurs as a direct or indirect result of:
  - a) any act, statement, error, omission, conduct, or fault of the Temporary Worker; and/or
  - b) any failure on the part of the Temporary Worker to complete any assignment (except where the Client has cancelled for reasons unrelated to the Temporary Worker's performance or conduct).
13. MP does not accept any responsibility and shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Temporary Worker as a result of this assignment being terminated by either MP or the Client.
14. The Temporary Worker acknowledges that this agreement and the rights hereunder, shall inure to the benefit of each Client of which he or she is assigned, and its successors and assigns as third party beneficiaries of this agreement.
15. The terms and conditions of this Agreement as well as any and all disputes or matters arising directly or indirectly from or relating to this Agreement and/or the relationship between the Temporary Worker and MP shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without references to any conflicts-of-law principles. The Temporary Worker hereby (i) irrevocably consents and submits to the exclusive and mandatory Personal Jurisdiction of the state and/or federal Courts of New York regarding any and all disputes or matters arising directly or indirectly from or relating to this Agreement and/or the relationship between the Temporary Worker and MP, (ii) agrees that the foregoing Courts shall be the exclusive and mandatory forum and shall have exclusive and mandatory jurisdiction over any of the foregoing matters except to the extent, and only to the extent, that MP, at its sole discretion, seeks to enforce any relief in any other jurisdiction as may be necessary to enforce MP's rights hereunder, and (iii) irrevocably waives any objection to the foregoing mandatory jurisdiction and forum selection based on improper venue or inconvenient forum or otherwise.

Company Drug Policy

Company Drug Policy

Michael Page International, Inc. (hereinafter, "MP") part of the PageGroup, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, having its North American Headquarters at 405 Lexington Avenue, The Chrysler Building, 28th Floor, New York, NY 10174 is committed to providing a safe, healthy, and productive work environment for all employees, clients, and customers. Employees who use illegal drugs or abuse legal drugs or alcohol tend to be less productive, less reliable, and prone to greater performance and attendance problems resulting in the potential for increased costs, delays, and risks, not only to our business, but also to our clients. In the interest of promoting a safer, healthier, and more productive environment, all employees must not, in any covered premises (as defined below), be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs (i.e. drugs for which the use, sale or possession is prohibited by law) or under the influence of controlled substances (where an employee is using a controlled substance without a prescription, abusing a controlled substance or the use of the controlled substance either impairs the employee's ability to work safely or endangers other employees or visitors to MP's premises). Violations of this policy may result in discipline, up to and including immediate termination, and, in appropriate situations, referral to law enforcement authorities.

For purposes of this policy, covered premises includes all property, offices, facilities, land, buildings, structures, fixtures, installations and automobiles owned, leased, rented or used by the Company and its affiliates and subsidiaries. Covered premises also includes all property of MP's clients and any other work locations, or mode of transportation to and from those locations, while an employee is engaged in the course and scope of employment with MP and/or its affiliates and subsidiaries.

Drug Use

MP prohibits the (i) possession or use of drug paraphernalia (as defined below) and (ii) use, possession, manufacture, distribution, sale, or being under the influence of controlled substances (unless prescribed and permitted under this policy) or illegal drugs on all covered MP and Client premises, business, sponsored events, or during working hours. This prohibition includes all forms of narcotics, depressants, stimulants, or hallucinogens whose sale, purchase, transfer, distribution, use or possession is prohibited or restricted by law.

Drug paraphernalia is any material or equipment used or designed for use in testing, packaging, storing, injecting, ingesting, inhaling or otherwise introducing into the human body any illegal or any controlled substances covered by this policy

The legal use of prescribed controlled substances is permitted on the job if such use does not impair the employee's ability to work safely and does not endanger other employees.

Alcohol Use

Unauthorized use of alcohol, possession of alcohol, or being under the influence of alcohol on all MP property or while on MP business is also prohibited.

Testing

To the extent permitted by applicable state law, MP may test for drugs/or alcohol in the following circumstances:

- Prior to assignment with certain clients that require drug and alcohol tests; or
- After an accident that results in injury to the employee or a fellow employee or that causes property damage when there is reasonable suspicion of prohibited drug or alcohol use; or

Any employee who tampers with, falsifies, substitutes, or alters a urine sample or breath test, or who attempts to do so shall be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

MP will adhere to all applicable local and state laws in the administration of testing pursuant to this policy.

Inspections

MP reserves the right to conduct searches of all property, offices, facilities, land, buildings, structures, fixtures, installations and automobiles owned, leased, rented or used by MP and its affiliates and subsidiaries at any time, and employees are required to cooperate with such search (to the extent permitted by law).

Confidentiality

All information concerning drug and/or alcohol testing referrals and testing results, and/or treatment and rehabilitation of an employee, will be kept confidential to the greatest extent possible and in accordance with applicable law.

Any questions about this policy should be directed to MP's human resources department before signing.

The information gathered via this referencing procedure may be passed to our clients prospective employers to assist our candidate in obtaining employment. In addition, the Company's Privacy Policy provides candidates with the right to see all information we hold on them (including this reference). Full details of our Privacy Policy can be accessed via our website at www.michaelpage.com

Confidentiality Agreement

AGREEMENT made between "Temporary Worker" and Michael Page International, Inc., part of the PageGroup, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, having its North American Headquarters at 405 Lexington Avenue, The Chrysler Building, 28th Floor, New York, NY 10174 ("MP").

Temporary Worker understands that MP and its clients have developed and use commercially valuable information in their business, and to guard the legitimate interests of MP and its clients, it is necessary for MP to protect certain of the information as confidential and a trade secret; and

Temporary Worker understands that such information is vital to the success of the MP and its clients business, and that through Temporary Worker's employment by MP, Temporary Worker may become acquainted with that information, and may contribute to that information through additions or in some other manner; and

Temporary Worker understands that all such information and improvements are the exclusive property of MP and its clients and may be protected by MP, as MP deems appropriate;

Therefore, in consideration of Temporary Worker's employment or continued employment by MP ("Employment"), and in consideration of the mutual promises in this Agreement, Temporary Worker and MP agree as follows:

I. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure

- A. Temporary Worker acknowledges that during or in connection with the Employment, Temporary Worker has had and/or will or may have access to or become aware of certain confidential information of the MP or its affiliates, including, without limitation, information or knowledge pertaining to products and services offered, plans, proprietary information, sales methods and systems, sales and profit figures, client and visitor lists, relationships between the MP and its affiliates and its clients and others who have had or will have business dealings with the MP, confidential ideas and trade secrets concerning the operations of the MP or its affiliates and their clients, all of which the Temporary Worker acknowledges is confidential to the MP (hereinafter referred to as "Confidential Information" as more specifically defined in paragraph C of this Section I). Temporary Worker agrees to hold in confidence any and all Confidential Information that Temporary Worker becomes aware of during or in connection with the Employment, regardless of whether it was intentionally disclosed to or developed by Temporary Worker in connection with the Employment, except:
- (i) information which, at the time of disclosure, is in the public domain or which, after disclosure, becomes part of the public domain by publication or otherwise through no action or fault of Temporary Worker;
  - (ii) information which Temporary Worker can show was in its possession at the time of disclosure and was not acquired directly or indirectly, from Employer or in connection with the Employment; or
  - (iii) information which was received by Temporary Worker from a third party having the legal right to transmit that information and not transmitted in connection with the Employment.
- B. Temporary Worker acknowledges and agrees that any Confidential Information may be a private and/or valuable and unique asset to the MP and/or any of its affiliates or clients and the Temporary Worker will not, without the written permission of the MP or its client, use or disclose, directly or indirectly, to anyone outside the MP the Confidential Information, which Temporary Worker is obligated hereunder to maintain in confidence, for any reason except to the extent necessary to enable Temporary Worker to properly and completely perform the Employment.
- C. Temporary Worker will not reproduce or make copies of, publish or disseminate the Confidential Information, except as required in the performance of the Employment. Upon termination of the Employment for any reason whatsoever, Temporary Worker will promptly deliver to MP and its client all correspondence, databases, lists, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, flow-charts, programs, proposals, documents concerning MP or client's customer/clients documents concerning processes used by MP or client, and all other documents, writings, and materials that were accessed by, provided to or utilized by Temporary Worker during or in connection with the Employment (collectively "Confidential Information"), together with any copies or other reproductions thereof made by Temporary Worker or in the possession or control of Temporary Worker. Temporary Worker understands all such records, whether developed by Temporary Worker or others are and will remain the property of MP or its clients.
- D. The Temporary Worker will not, during or at any time subsequent to the Employment, unless the MP and/or the respective client has given prior written consent, engage in or refrain from any action, where such action or inaction may result (a) in the unauthorized disclosure of any or all Confidential Information to any person or entity; or (b) in the infringement of any or all rights of the MP and/or any of its affiliates or clients with respect to any Confidential Information.
- E. The Temporary Worker acknowledges that a material breach of this Agreement would result in material irreparable injury to the MP and/or its affiliates and/or clients for which there is no adequate remedy at law, that it will not be possible to measure damages for such injuries precisely and that, in the event of such a material breach, the MP shall be entitled to obtain a temporary restraining order and/or a preliminary or permanent injunction (without the need to post a bond or security) restraining Temporary Worker from engaging in activities prohibited by this Agreement or such other relief as may be required to specifically enforce any of the covenants in this Agreement.

2. No Contract of Employment

Temporary Worker acknowledges and understands that nothing herein creates a contract of employment, guarantees Employee any employment or alters the at-will nature of the Employment.

Form W-4 (2015)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2015 expires February 16, 2016. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2015. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.
