Standard Conditions for Temporary Workers

Temporary Workers are engaged under a contract for services, the terms of which are set out below and which apply to each and every assignment.

1. All and any business undertaken by Michael Page International ("MP") is transacted subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set out each of which shall be incorporated or implied in any agreement between MP and the work-seeker ("Temporary Worker"). MP is operating in the capacity of an employment business.
2. MP agrees to offer suitable assignment work to the Temporary Worker with a hirer ("Client") requiring such a Temporary Worker. The types of work and expected rates of pay to be sought on behalf of the Temporary Worker are outlined in the Candidate Registration Schedule. Final terms and conditions will be issued at the commencement of an assignment, detailing the actual rate of pay and the type of work to be undertaken.
3. MP reserves the right to offer any assignment as it may elect to such Temporary Worker where that assignment is suitable for several Temporary Workers. The Temporary Worker is under no obligation to accept such an offer but, if accepted, he/she owes the normal common law duties of a worker as far as they are reasonably applicable.
4. It is a condition of this Agreement that the Temporary Worker shall, before the commencement of any assignment, have provided MP with satisfactory evidence of the Temporary Worker's identity which shall include, but not be limited to, a certified copy of the Temporary Worker's passport or a birth certificate.
5. If, in respect of any assignment, the Temporary Worker is required by law, any professional body or by the Client to hold any qualifications and/or authorizations, the Temporary Worker shall provide MP with:
  - (a) up to date copies of such qualifications or authorizations; and
  - (b) the names of two referees (who are not relatives of the Temporary Worker) who the Temporary Worker agrees that MP may approach for the purpose of obtaining references about the Temporary Worker. The Temporary Worker also consents to the disclosure of such qualifications, authorizations and/or references by MP to the Client.
6. MP shall pay to the Temporary Worker wages calculated at an hourly rate, to be determined prior to the commencement of the assignment, subject to deductions for which MP is required by law to make deductions. The standard payment interval will be weekly with any alternative interval being notified prior to the individual assignment. The Temporary Worker shall be required to provide time sheets signed by the Client agreeing the hours worked by the Temporary Worker on a weekly basis. In addition, the Temporary Worker shall promptly comply with any other rule or request (either from the Client or MP) to provide information and/or documentation in respect of the hours worked by the Temporary Worker. Failure by the Temporary Worker to provide any evidence of hours worked may delay payment for such hours. MP will not withhold payment of the Temporary Worker's wages through reason of non-receipt of payments from the Client.

If requested to do so, the Temporary Worker shall execute any documentation which the Client shall deem necessary to give effect to this provision.
9. The Temporary Worker shall immediately inform MP and the Client should there be any reason or circumstance under which it would be detrimental to the interests of MP, the Client or the Temporary Worker for the assignment to continue.
10. The Temporary Worker is requested to advise MP of any other assignment or vacancies that he/she may have been informed of by the Client.
